

The premier aviation weather and safety-of-flight free workshop is returning this summer for its seventh offering in the last ten years.

The National Weather Service's
Southwest Aviation Weather Safety (SAWS) VII Workshop
 will be held in Long Beach, CA at the Best Western Golden Sails Hotel
June 16 & 17th, 2017!

AVIATION WEATHER
 FORECASTING
 WORKSHOP

Friday, June 16th

Topics: Pattern recognition in forecasting for convective and winter storm events, GOES-16 aviation applications, forecast verification, PIREPs lessons learned and more!

SOCIAL GATHERING

Friday Evening, June 16th

Meet-up with current SAWS attendees, catch up with old friends, make new friends and contacts. Hosted in the hotel bar/lounge.

AVIATOR AND CONTROLLER WEATHER WORKSHOP

Saturday, June 17th

Topics: Overview of aviation weather products, PIREPs lessons learned, ADS-B usefulness, history of SAWS and more!

Earn WINGs credit!!

For workshop agendas, digital copy of this flier, workshop registration and additional information please visit:
<http://www.wrh.noaa.gov/psr/SAWS7/>

